

ORGANIZATIONAL MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

The New York MGMA, the premier professional association for medical practice leaders, offers medical practices and health facilities two organizational membership options. Each membership type, discount and premium, is based on tiers of 5 member increments and affords different benefits.

DISCOUNTED MEMBERSHIP

Transferability – If a member leaves the organization within the established membership year, then that membership ends. It cannot be transferred to another individual; nor will any dues amount be prorated and refunded.

Educational Benefits – Individuals, identified as part of the organizational membership, can attend our events at the established member registration rate.

PREMIUM MEMBERSHIP

Transferability – The organization can transfer a membership from one individual to another who is affiliated with the organization.

Educational Benefits – Individuals, identified as part of the organizational membership, can attend our events at the established member registration rate.

Event Swap – An organization can substitute a nonmember for a member to attend an event. The number of substitutions, per event, is limited to the total organizational membership. The organization will be responsible for monitoring attendance. Attendees must pre-register. Payment will be required for attendees above the purchased membership level.

How to apply for an Organizational Membership

1. Go to www.NewYorkMGMA.com and click on Join. Select the organizational membership of your choice, Discount or Premium. Follow the online prompts to create the main contact for your organization.
2. Once the main contact is in our system, there are two options to add members: 1) The main contact enters everyone; or, 2) The main contact completes an Excel file with all required information, send this to Info@NewYorkMGMA.com and we upload it to the system.
3. Payment can be completed online at the time of application. If necessary, there is an option to print an invoice.
4. The organizational membership will not be active until payment is received by New York MGMA.
